A Thousand Years

There was a new millennium that began on January 1, 2000. Some would say it began on January 1, 2001. There is still some discussion as to when it started. There is also discussion about a millennium that is coming at the end of the world. Here is what the Bible records about that millennium.

Revelation 20:4-5 Then I saw thrones, and seated on them were those to whom the authority to judge was committed. Also I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and for the word of God, and those who had not worshiped the beast or its image and had not received its mark on their foreheads or their hands. They came to life and reigned with Christ for a thousand years. The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended. This is the first resurrection. (ESV)

Different groups have different ideas about what the millennium will look like. There are different views as to the events preceding and following the millennium. Whenever it occurs, I am excited and find hope in this event.

I'm excited, because it will be a time in the history of our world when Christians with Christ at the helm govern our world. It will be a theocracy with our King of Kings and Lord of Lords ruling the world. It will be a time when Satan and his henchmen will have no influence on society.

There is great hope in knowing that Christ will reign in our world. No matter how bad things get, in the end we have the knowledge that our God reigns supreme!

I don't know what your day looks like today, but at some point, our world will experience a
